SUCCESSFUL EVER HELD

The 26th Annual Convention of the New England Numismatic Association and first to be held in New Hampshire was a huge success.

Bourse chairman Grovenor C. Nudd received many compliments on the outstanding bourse set-up. Exhibit chairman William Prince was congratulated on the terrific exhibits. James Stone presented a fine educational program with Kenneth Bressett, James Clapp, Jr. and himself on the Friday night panel and Chester Krause as banquet speaker. John Hunter was in fine fettle as Master of Ceremonies at the banquet which was unusually well attended.

Treasurer Leon Savoy topped all previous records for financial success and with Mrs. William Elms took charge of registration with efficiency. Mrs. Wayne Rich, Mrs. G.C. Nudd, Mr. & Mrs. Dale Nudd, Robert Bomberra, Donald Pickering and several others assisted. Omer Soucy collected many N.H.N.A. dues as well as assisting with other registration jobs.

The N.E.N.A. medal which includes a New Hampshire Colonial copper as part of its design was very popular with silver and bronze completely sold out. The 25 numbered silver medals sold at auction for about $15 each on the average. A few gold plated at $2.50 are still available. A few of the 25 uniface gold plated medals are offered at mail bid sale. Send bids or orders for the regular gold plated medal to Wayne Rich, Box 391, Concord, New Hampshire.
